

I Am Lesson 3

What does the narrator say about what we were brought into the world with and what we need to succeed in life?

What are the thoughts in your mind that keep you from giving your best?

What can you do when you feel at a loss to know who you really are?